MASS INTENTIONS: It is the custom of the Catholic Church that priests remember specific intentions at the celebration of the Eucharist. Normally, a small offering is given for a Mass Intention. Anyone can request a particular intention for which a Mass can be offered. Mass cards, to be given to the family of a deceased person for whom a Mass is to be offered or to be given to the living person for whose intentions a Mass is to be offered, are available when requesting a Mass intention. Requests can be made at the Parish Office.

A Future Full of Hope is the theme for the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please reflect for the remainder of this month on the blessings you have received in your life and make a grateful response according to your means. You will be receiving a letter this week from the Archbishop regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, which I support, and I hope you will support it also by bringing your pledge envelope on Commitment Sunday, May 3rd/4th.

Thank you,

Ron Ryan

Dear Ron,

In gratitude for the generosity of your faith community we acknowledge the donation of $1,593 for the 2008 Catholic Relief Services Collection taken last month.

These funds put faith into action by supporting six Catholic internationally-focused organizations that provide services to the poor and promote justice and peace.

In God's peace, with thanks for your community's generous response,

RCIA:
Rites of Christian
Initiation for Adults
for those interested in becoming
CATHOLIC

What is involved in becoming Catholic? RCIA is the process that Catholic Church uses to help those who have never been baptized, and those who have been baptized in other Christian traditions, to discern the call to become a member of the Catholic Church. The group meets throughout the year on Sunday mornings at 9:00 am to learn about Catholic teaching, traditions, prayer and life. RCIA is not a course or program, but rather a discernment process where participants can openly ask questions and explore specific areas. For further information call Ron Ryan at the Parish Office at 206-282-0223, or email at rryan@stanneseattle.org.
