Thank You Queen Anne Service Day Saturday, April 4, 9:00 am

This will be a fun day of reaching out to say thank you to our local community. There will be ways for everyone—of every age group—to be involved! There are a variety of projects:

- putting together hygiene packs for Queen Anne Helpline in Banchero Hall;
- yard clean up for local seniors

Help us in our planning for the day by letting us know you'll be there—sign up forms are available in the church entryways, or call the parish office.

Please bring the needed toiletry items to Mass next weekend. Grocery gift cards are also welcome.

Let's all be involved in saying "Thank You" to our wonderful Queen Anne neighborhood!

Have you looked at the back of the bulletin?

Did you know the parish does not have to pay for the printing of this weekly bulletin? It is because of the generosity of our advertisers that this bulletin is printed by Catholic Printery at no cost to the parish.

Please patronize these advertisers and tell them you saw their ad in our bulletin!

SCHOOL DAYS:

The Work of the Works. This week students will be considering the corporal work of mercy, "Shelter the Homeless." In progress is a service project in support of the Botshabelo Orphanage in South Africa which shelters children who have lost their parents to AIDS. The 8th graders (and one 7th grader) who organized this effort are selling Botshabelo T-shirts and Ubuntu bracelets. St. Anne School staff will "Feed the Hungry" as they prepare dinner for the residents of Noel House Women's Shelter March 23, a project from the parish's Service Tree.

Remember Baku*? 8th grader Jackson Studzinski does—and a lot more. He has qualified for the state level of the National Geography Bee, April 3rd in Tacoma. (*The capitol of Azerbaijan).

CYO. The volleyball teams are donating this space to another "V" organization— St. Vincent de Paul. Many are calling and fewer are chosen. The need for funds is urgent. Checks and envelopes of cash clearly marked "St. Vincent de Paul" will be happily retrieved from any of the collections on any weekend.
