The Power of Change. Students met their Lenten goal of filling one Rice Bowl per day. They raised $900 for Catholic Relief Services.

From the Pastoral Coordinator

Our Holy Week and Easter liturgies were beautiful, and I want to thank everyone who helped make them such wonderful celebrations for our community. Thank you to our choir members, of all ages; the many liturgical ministers; sacristans, Eucharistic ministers, readers, altar servers, ushers and greeters; those who helped prepare the banners and floral arrangements. Thank you to our Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy, Marian Young, and our Pastoral Assistant for Music, Paul Kramer, who worked many hours in the days leading up to Easter. And thank you to Father Bowman for his wonderful ministry. Our Pastoral Assistant for Administration, Rich Santi, also did a great deal getting our church ready for the week. Volunteers Allan and Suzanne Rosenthal put in many late hours painting the Assembly Room entry in time for the big weekend. Our Holy Week and Easter celebrations were the result of many parishioners sharing their time and talent with our community. So much of our parish life and outreach happens through the generous ways parishioners volunteer to help. This week you are asked to consider how you can get involved in our parish life and mission. A Ministry Fair is being held in Banchemo Hall after all the Masses. People from each of our ministries, organizations and outreaches will be there to share about their group. Stop by and explore how you might get involved, and sign up with one or more group. Also, a new Parish Ministry Directory is available at the doors of the church. Pick one up and fill out the card to volunteer. Your gift of your time and talent will help our parish continue to grow! The new draft Parish Mission and Vision Statements have been published for your comments and suggestions. You can pick up a copy of the statements at the entryways of the church, or read them on our website. These statements will become the basis for our Parish Five Year Plan for 2010-2015. Please share your comments—your input will help to shape our future!
