The Book of Revelation
a message of hope for a world falling apart

Continues this

Thursday, June 4

7:00 pm in the Assembly Room

Wars...diseases...earthquakes...economic collapse...
Signs of the end of the world? — or just the 21st Century?

Many people think that the Book of Revelation was written to foretell the End Times. But it was really written to bring a message of hope to people facing overwhelming challenges in their society and their world.

Today, as our world faces challenges of cosmic proportion, Revelation still speaks a message of hope. Join Ron Ryan for this study of a Catholic interpretation of the Book of Revelation, and let it help you make sense out of a world that seems to be falling apart.

Everyone is welcome. There is no registration or fee.

RCIA :
for those interested in becoming
CATHOLIC

Are you—or is someone you know—interested in learning about what is involved in becoming Catholic? RCIA is the process the Catholic Church uses to help those who have never been baptized, and those who have been baptized in other Christian traditions, discern their call to become a member of the Catholic Church. The group meets throughout the year to learn about Catholic teaching, traditions, prayer and life. RCIA is not a course or program, but rather a process where participants can openly ask questions and explore specific areas. For further information call Ron Ryan or email at rryan@stanneseattle.org.

“I was in prison and you came to visit me...” (Matt 25:36)

The Archdiocesan Criminal Justice Ministry is seeking volunteers to minister at the King County Jail (downtown Seattle). A compassionate heart and non-judgmental manner are a must, with new volunteers assisting seasoned volunteers and pastoral ministers in a variety of prayer services. Morning, afternoon and evening positions are available, training is provided and required. For more information, please contact Ann Keller at 206-296-1774, or email her at annkeller@gmail.com

Creative Expression and Contemplative Practice

A very special retreat will be offered at the Palisades Retreat Center this summer. It will focus on lectio divina (sacred reading) which is an ancient Christian practice that allows us to enter into silence and let the depths of scripture speak to our hearts. No previous experience with lectio divina or the art is necessary. Retreat days are Sunday, July 12—Tuesday, July 14. For more information, call the Palisades at 1-800-330-7622 or go on line to www.seattlearch.org/palisades

Dear Members of the Church of Western Washington:

Your generous donations to your parish and the Archdiocese make it possible for our local Church to carry out its mission and to share the good news of Jesus Christ throughout Western Washington. As members of the Archdiocesan Finance Council, we assist Archbishop Brunett and his staff in the oversight of financial matters of the Archdiocese of Seattle. Each year we provide an Annual Report to keep you apprised of the financial condition of our Church and to keep you informed about some of the issues and challenges we are addressing. You can find the report at www.seattlearch.org. The link is Annual Report 2007—2008.
