Welcome, returning Catholics!

If you are a Catholic who has been away from active participation in the church, welcome! We hope you will feel at home here at St. Anne. We realize that many returning Catholics have questions about the church, its teaching and its practices. We would welcome the opportunity to meet with you, to answer your questions, and to address any concerns. Please contact the parish office at 206-282-0223, or email info@stanneseattle.org. We look forward to helping you reconnect with your church community.

Artists Needed!

Paper-Cut Banners Workshop - March 27

Many people have commented on the two paper-cut banners hanging in our church. These unique creations have been on loan for the past six months. Now we'd like to create two of our own—one of St. Anne with the young Mary, and another of St. Joachim (husband of St. Anne).

If you interested in helping to create these, please join us for a banner-making workshop on Saturday, March 27, 9:00 am—12:00 noon in the church. We'll learn the technique for making paper-cut banners, and begin work on our new pieces. For more information, contact Ron Ryan at the Parish Office.

Photo Directory

Thank you to the 318 families who took time to be photographed for our new parish directory. Also many thanks to all those who helped welcome and sign up those families. Your time was very much appreciated! Our new directories will be delivered this summer.

Lenten Bible Study

The Acts of the Apostles

a look at the roots of our faith

a five-week study continues Thursday, March 11, 7:00 pm

The first Christians were changed by their faith—and then, they changed the world. Explore how this group of insignificant men and women grew into a community that transcended social, ethnic and political boundaries. What can their story teach us today?

There is no registration or fee. Everyone is welcome for all or part of the series.

School Life

School Days /CYO

Reported by Carol Yund

Be Not Afraid to be the Change is the school theme this Lent. Each day on the Lenten calendar is marked for either "Simon" or "Veronica". Both helped Jesus during his journey to Calvary and were transformed in the process. Simon the Cyrene was asked to carry Jesus' cross. It was not his intention to do so, but he answered the call. Veronica, moved by His suffering, stepped forward to wipe His face and offer a moment of comfort. On Simon days, students are asked to do a specific good deed. On Veronica days, they are encouraged to take their own step toward self-transformation. The Simon schedule this week: Tuesday - help with the dinner dishes; Thursday - pray the Our Father and Hail Mary for the homeless; Saturday - pray 10 Our Fathers for 10 different people.

Valentine Candygrams raised $543.00 for Hope for Haiti.

Soup. As you are opening those cans for Campbell clam chowder on Lenten Fridays, please remember the "Labels for Education" collection is year-round. Bins in the east and west church foyers.

Give Hope to Jesus
in disguise

Support the marginalized, impoverished, and vulnerable through The Catholic Relief
Services Collection in your parish.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection - Benefiting Haiti & 99 Other Countries

The annual Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC) will be next weekend. The theme, Jesus in Disguise, reminds us of the presence of Christ in every one of our brothers and sisters in need. This collection is established by the bishops of the United States with the hope that, by combining resources, we can more effectively carry out our mission as Catholics.

The Service Tree

Make a difference in someone's life this Lent. The Service Tree offers dozens of ways you can reach out with a helping hand to people in need. There are projects for children, adults and families, and each one takes only a few hours. When you've completed the project, come back and put a ribbon on the Service Tree. Put your faith into action—and watch it blossom!

Lenten Rice Bowls

Since 1975, Operation Rice Bowl has inspired Catholics in the U.S. to pray, fast, learn and give as we increase our understanding of our global community. We connect this understanding with the principals of Catholic Social Teaching throughout our Lenten journey. We encourage you to participate in Operation Rice Bowl at home with your family and loved ones. There are rice bowls at all the church entrances. Please bring your donations to Mass on Holy Thursday.
