Your support is critical to the success of the Annual Catholic Appeal and its many ministries and services. Your gift is still needed. Know that every gift can and will make a difference.

If you cannot make a financial commitment at this time, please fill out an envelope and pledge to offer a prayer.

Thank you to all those who have already turned in their pledge card. So far 12% of our parishioners have participated.

Retreat for Returning Catholics

Maybe you've been away from the Church for awhile. Maybe you're not sure if you want to return, but you are willing to at least take a second look. Come on a retreat for Returning Catholics on the weekend of May 28-30 with Paulist priest Fr. Michael Everndon from Oregon. It will be a faith sharing retreat with group presentations and communal prayer. There will be time for you to rest, reflect and encounter God. For more information or to register, call the Paslisades Retreat Center at 1-800-330-7622.

Cabrini Ministry

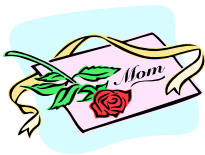

If your spiritual journey is leading you to grow deeper in faith and to become more active in ministry, and you desire training and guidance...Cabrini Ministry Training is just for you! CMT has been training lay ministers in the Catholic tradition for the last 19 years. CMT does this by providing training, guidance and ministerial support to those lay people who feel the special call to develop their skills and deepen their faith in service to God's people. If you are interested, plan to attend an information meeting on Monday, May 10 from 7—8:30 pm at St. James Cathedral Place. RSVP to Tom Curran, 206-760-0583.

School Days /CYO

Reported by Carol Yund

They also serve who pick up the pieces. The last piece of baklava is eaten. The echoes of "Sold" have died. Now comes "Mama Mia: The Clean-up." Heaps of praise to clean-up chairs Bruce Bonnet and John Byrum and their crew. Very special mention to Nelson Nakata for his high altitude heroics on the scissor lift. By Monday morning, Banchemo was back to its functional self and ready to welcome the students to the weekly prayer assembly.

Tribute to Moms. And, at the aforementioned assembly, kindergarteners told one thing that made their mothers special. "She makes cupcakes with me." "She helps when I fall down." "Sometimes she let me eat brownies before dinner." The most heard reason though was "Because she loves me." Happy Mother's Day.

Infant Baptism

Please call the parish office to receive a registration packet for the next baptism class which will be held May 22 in preparation for the June 26 - 27 baptisms. The registration materials along with a copy of the birth certificate attached are due back by May 14. There will be a limit of four children baptized at each Mass. Parents awaiting the birth of their child are also encouraged to attend this class.

1st Communion is Next Sunday!

Next Sunday we will welcome 40 children and their families who will celebrate the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time at the 10:00am Mass. A reception will follow in Banchemo Hall.

Come and Serve One Another, as Jesus has Taught and Exemplified

On Holy Thursday, we remembered and celebrated the institution of Eucharist in the Last Supper. Each week when we gather for Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday morning, we are blessed to be able to receive Jesus in Body and Blood and continue in our growth to become more like Him in all we do.

Currently, we have a severe shortage of people who serve our community as Eucharistic Ministers. Helping Father in the distribution of the Body and Blood is a joy for both those who serve and those who are served. Would you please consider volunteering as a Eucharistic Minister? The goal is to have enough ministers to be able to schedule you only twice a month or less, and be able to cover summer vacations and other absences. Training is provided. If you are interested and/or have questions, please talk with Marian Young (206-282-0223 or marian@stanneseattle.org) or any of the people currently in the ministry. Thank you!

MUSICIANS!

Interested in being part of the Music Ministry at St. Anne Parish? Do you sing? Do you want to sing? Do you play an instrument? Come! Join our team, tell us how you want to be involved and enhance our liturgies. Everyone is invited to participate. Please call Paul Kramer, Pastoral Assistant for Music, 285-4553 or e-mail paul@stanneseattle.org.
