Take Courage John 16:33

Returning. The middle school Social Justice Committee. This after-school group meets on Tuesdays and is open to all middle school students. Discussions are based on the 7 tenets of Catholic Social Teaching. The subject for this month is mental health.

First Art Project. Compliments to the 3rd and 5th grade classes for a striking 45" x 30" poster made of individually decorated 4-1/2" paper tiles. Cool colors were the background for a large heart in fittingly warm colors. The poster accompanied the Monday morning meditation by art teacher, Ms. Kristin Earnst: Take heart. Do not be afraid what to do. Listen for the voice of God.

CYO Soccer. Winners: 8th grade boys, Haberdasher's Award (tie) 6th grade boys.

MoveAthon. Students are still busily soliciting pledges supporting their efforts to run, walk, and jog their way to the $39,000 goal. Everyone can help. (Have you asked the student sitting near you at Mass?)

MoveAthon Traffic Alert! Thursday afternoon, October 14th is the big day. There will be students galore on the streets around the school and the church, esp. W. Lee / W.Comstock and 1st / 2nd Ave W. If you must be driving in the neighborhood, please, please keep your head on a swivel, a light foot on the gas and your phone in the back seat.
