Special Events

Racial Justice with Fr. Dan Horan, OGM

St. Anne has formally joined the Racial Solidarity Network along with other parishes in our Northern Deanery. The Social Justice Commission would like to invite you to this event coming up!

Saturday, February 12, 2022

9:00am - 1:00pm PST

Attend via Zoom

Register by February 10

In this workshop Fr. Dan, author of A White Catholic's Guide to Racism and Privilege, invites us to actively address racism and become allies to our Black sisters and brothers as we work for racial justice in our society and Church.

Grounded in the Gospel, the wisdom of Catholic tradition and Catholic Social Teaching, he offers practical ways to educate ourselves and advocate for racial justice.

Register here. No registration fee required. Donations are welcome.

Coffee & Donuts Are Still On Hold

We are taking precautionary methods to reduce the risk of spreading Covid until we break through this current wave. Coffee & Donuts is really our best excuse to foster our sense of community and belonging. Building relationships rooted in faith and our love for Jesus is a beautiful experience.

Thank You!

The members of the Social Justice Commission would like to thank everyone who donated socks during our sock drive this winter. All of your thoughtful and generous donations were delivered to Sacred Heart Shelter at its new location near Des Moines. They were very thankful and will share any extras with other shelters in the area. We have told the director of these shelters to feel free to ask for any items they may need. Once again your generosity is a great blessing for those in our community who face many challenges!

school news

January 30 is the official opening of National Catholic Schools Week. This yearly event uses each day to celebrate the “infrastructure” of the school: parents, grandparents/grand friends, parish staff, parishioners, neighborhood businesses, and, of course, students and staff. Because of the uncertainty and limitations of Covid-19, St. Anne is rescheduling to the week of February 14 hoping the situation may be more stabilized and flexible for accommodating as many activities as possible. Regretfully school tours and the “Grands” lunch will not happen this year but watch this space for other news.

Good-bye. The Seattle Prep Speech Tournament marks the end of the competitive speech tourney tour for the 2021-2022 school year. As has become customary, the St. Anne team made a very reputable showing. Among 300 competitors, they submitted 47 speeches. Nine were in the top five finishers, four were in the top three and, as a grand finale, Sophia Wingert finished in a top spot and was awarded a scholarship to Seattle Prep.

And, THANK YOU. Unsung in all this success are coaches. Mr. Kevin Burkhart, Mrs. Amy Cunningham and faculty advisor, 8th grade homeroom teacher, Mr. Daniel Talevich.
