Latest News

Support for Young Families

We recognize that during this pandemic, many families, especially those with young children, have been isolated and would greatly benefit from community and comfort. Our church is a family of families, and an extension of your home. We want to offer our hands and hearts to help foster a togetherness that will allow us to create a true fellowship, deepening our faith and fulfilling our purpose in each of our roles as fathers, mothers and children, and as a living reflection of God as a communion of love. If you are parents of young children and would like to be connected to other families, please email Mike Borte at mikeborte@stanneseattle.org

First Sunday Coffee & Donuts

In response to passing the Omicron peak we are happy to share that Coffee and Donuts resumes this Sunday. We know that we're not gathering for the food, but to gather with friends and make new friends. We encourage care, caution and masking up.

Experience at the Alpha Conference

Fr. Colin, Taniele and 4 parishioners (Jayne Farmer, Katie Edwards, Stefanie Buono and Jean Hushebeck) went to Phoenix and joined with Christians from across the country to have an experience of praying for each other and collaborating in sharing the Good News. Some of the conference topics were on Building a Kingdom Culture, Engaging Generation Z in the Faith and Becoming a Hospitable Evangelizer. We had workshops on how to run Alpha and learned some best practices from churches who have been running Alpha for over a decade. Throughout the upcoming months we continue growing our first parish Alpha team and prepare for launching Alpha this fall. If you are interested in being a part of the team and sharing your gifts, especially of hospitality please contact Taniele Tucker ttucker@stanneseattle.org. Find out more about by visiting AlphaUSA.org

Archbishop Etienne's Annual Letter

Archbishop Etienne shares his hopes for 2022 in his Annual letter to the Archdiocese of Seattle.

Take Courage John 16:33

An overlooked treasure. The two street level classrooms facing Lee Street are home to the Pre -K and kindergarten students. Each pane of the windows displays a work by each student about the current study—all facing Lee St. for the pleasure of passers-by. Pre-K chose polar bears as their favorite and posted drawings of an actual size bear paw accompanied by a fact about the bear. On the other end of the color spectrum, next room over, kindergarteners created sparkling white snowmen on a “snowing” pastel background “wishing for snow”. In these Covid days when the creativity of students is not available to tour, thank you to the youngest students and their teachers, Ms. Heather McDougall and Mrs. Molly Tolle for a reminder.

The Maybe-Maybe-Not status of the science fair did not stop 7th graders and teacher, Mrs. Lisette Nenninger, from taking on a build-and-launch rocket project. Working in teams of two with a package of parts, four pages of tiny print pictures and instructions and two days work, students put together foot tall rockets fired with an electric launcher (no pyrotechnics) and considerable smoke. Admiration especially from we who struggle with a candle lighter.

Sweet deed. The Spirit Committee will begin visiting classrooms selling Candy-Grams Monday, 2/7. 25 cents each for a piece of candy on a card suitable for a note and delivery to someone at the school. Proceeds to the Seattle Animal Shelter and St. Anne St. Vincent de Paul.

Just for fun. While they may prefer an extra hour of sleep, St. Anne students are still happy to participate in PJ Day on Friday, Feb. 11.
