Take Courage John 16:33

Thursdays to be thankful for aren't limited to November.

Many members of the St. Anne Parish family are familiar with the vocal talents of St. Anne School alum and now Music/Drama teacher Ms. Anna Vizzare, but did you know her favorite form of artistic development and direction is choreography? For the last number of weeks, Ms. Vizzare has worked with grades K-5 individually to produce "Broadway Review" On Thursday, March 24, each class (yes, kindergarten, too) presented a song from a familiar Broadway musical excellently accompanied by an original dance routine.

The second best part of that day was that parents/guests of the performers were invited to attend. Guests were limited to two per student to keep numbers Covid-safe and masks were required, but what a treat to see rows of extra appreciative audience members with multiple rounds of applause for each act. It was a sight and sound Banchero Hall has not seen in nearly two years.

Besides a Tony-worthy acclamation to Ms. Vizzare, thank you too to principal, Mrs. Mary Sherman for her permission and encouragement and to vice principal, Mrs. Heidi Austin and science teacher, Mrs. Lisette Nenninger for production and stage management assistance.

Prayers that this may be the beginning of new times.

CYO Volleyball. Winners: 5/6th, 7th, and 8th grade boys, 8th grade girls.
