IN OUR hearts

THE MEMORIES THAT TOUCH US,
THE MOMENTS THAT WARM US,
THE GOD WHO LOVES US...

DEAR READERS OF OUR CHRISTMAS LETTER,
DEAR PARISHIONERS, GUESTS, AND FRIENDS OF OUR CHURCH COMMUNITY.

It is Christmas again, like every year. There's something comforting about its return, year after year. No matter what happened or didn't happen last year, Christmas is here once more. Some of us are filled with excitement, while others dread the holidays. But one thing remains true: Jesus is the reason for the glory of this season!

"Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord." (Luke 2:10-11)

Still, Christmas can be a challenge.

But this year, just like every other year, the candles will be burning, and we can find comfort despite our daily troubles. Because we again celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus.

We wish you a merry, blessed, joyful, and peaceful holiday season. It's Christmas again!

DARKNESS, AND THE DARKNESS HAS NOT OVERCOME IT." (JOHN 1:5)
