

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL
November 15-16, Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

For our church: that we may be a beacon of Christian Love, Mercy and Justice in our world. Lord of perseverance, we pray.

Though “nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom,” may all peoples come to know the saving power of the Lord. Lord of perseverance, we pray.

For those in the darkness of despair, help us find a way to bring hope. Lord of perseverance, we pray.

In this Native American Heritage Month, we remember the Duwamish tribe who have lived on this very land for thousands of years, and we pray for the well-being of its members living amongst us today. Lord of perseverance, we pray.

As in today’s readings, give us the perseverance and hope we need to endure all that is happening in the world, relying on your love and your justice. Lord of perseverance, we pray.

Help us to recognize and welcome those around us in need of food, healthcare, shelter, and protection. May we respond as true disciples of Christ. Lord of perseverance, we pray.
